- ensuring educators and staff do not delegate responsibilities for which they are accountable for or have been delegated to them by Management
- delegate all tasks in writing with a clear due date
- ensuring educators are adhering to service policies and procedures.

Service Philosophy

- The development and review of the philosophy and policies will be a continuous process on an annual basis or when required.
- The philosophy and associated statement of purpose will reinforce all other documentation and the practices of the Service. The philosophy will reflect the principles of the approved national framework “Being Belonging Becoming” and “My Time, Our Place: Framework for School Age Care in Australia”.
- There will be a collaborative and consultative process to support the development of the philosophy that will include children, parents and staff.
- All documents will be dated and include nominated review dates.

Confidentiality

All members of the teaching staff along with the Nominated Supervisor who gain access to confidential information, whether in the course of their work or otherwise, shall not disclose information to anyone unless the disclosure of such information is required by law and will respect the confidentiality of all documents and meetings that occur. This also includes:

- Using information acquired for their personal or financial benefit, or for the benefit of any other person
- Permitting any unauthorised person to inspect, or have access to any confidential documents or other information.

This obligation shall continue even after the individual has completed their term and is no longer employed by the Service.

The obligation to maintain confidentiality also applies to any person who is invited to any staff meetings.

Ethical decision-making

Our Service will make decisions which are consistent with our policies and procedures which work in conjunction with the national education and care law and regulations, our approved learning framework (EYLF) and the ethical standards within the ECA Code of Ethics.

Review and Evaluation of the Service

- Ongoing review and evaluation will support the continuing development of the Service. We will ensure that the evaluation involves all stakeholders.
- The development of a Quality Improvement Plan (QIP) will form part of the reflection procedure. Reflection on what works within the Service and what needs additional development. This will be included in the QIP.
